Ray Ryan's Colts hit the ball to all corners of Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, and won from the Shipbuilders by the score of 14 to 3.

Manager Spratt started Lefty Murphy on the mound, and he proved to be the choicest kind of pickings during his stay. In the fourth inning he was yanked, and Mullin replaced him, proving just as easy.

Grimes, who worked for the Colts, proved a puzzle to the visitors, and with men on the sacks he tightened up and it was only after the locals had a commanding lead that he loosened and allowed two tallies to drift across the pan.

As both Norfolk and Roanoke won their games, the relative standing of the three leading teams does not change. Schwartz and Newton fattened up their batting averages at the expense of the visiting twirlers each getting three hits. Every member of the Richmond team secured one or more hits, excepting Dolly Gray, who drew a blank for the day.

Manager Spratt, of the Builders, secured half of the total hits secured by his team and also scored one run. Copeland, who started to catch for Newport News, was severely spiked by Worth in the third inning, and the attention of a doctor was required to bandage up his leg. He will likely be out of the game for the balance of the season.

How the Runs Came Across.
After Maxwell had been retired by Gray in the opening inning, Manager Spratt sent a hurtling ball left field, he went to second when Clunk was hit by a pitched ball, and to third on a passed ball, scoring on Worth's error, when the local catcher tried to get him at third.

The Colts evened up the count in the second session on Newton's safe punt, a stolen base and Walters' error. In the third, three singles and a double counted for two runs for Richmond. The Waterloo, however, came in the next inning. After Newton landed on one of Murphy's slants for a single, Manager Spratt removed the twirler and substituted Mullin. He was even easier than Murphy, and before the last man had been retired six runs had been scored by the pitcher, and ten men had faced the pitcher.

Four additional runs were sent across in the next inning on three hits and two bases on balls, and the final count for the Colts was totaled in the sixth on a single, two sacrifices and an out at first.

Grimes eased up in the sixth, and two hits and a sacrifice, a walk, allowed two runs to cross the pan. The second game of the series will be played at Broad Street Park to-day, starting at 4:30 o'clock.

MARKLE PITCHES GREAT BALL AGAINST GOOBERS
Holds Petersburg Scoreless Until Ninth Inning—Pinch Hitters Make Good.

Hirsch Also in Form.
PETERSBURG, VA., August 17.—With Markle and Hirsch pitching in great style, and both teams playing errorless ball, Norfolk won the first game of the series from Petersburg this afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. For six innings Hirsch held Norfolk to four scattered hits. In the seventh Alexander singled and scored on Stewart's double, Stewart going to third on Ulrich's out. Agnew to Barnett, and scoring on Markle's long fly to Snyder. Petersburg made a great effort in the ninth. Simmons singled and stole second. Rice, pinch hitting for Bush, fanned. Hedgpeth, batting for Snyder, was given a pass. Simmons stealing third and scoring on Laval's hit to short. Hedgpeth going out on the play, McMahon to Stein. Hudgins, another pinch hitter, knocked a slow grounder

NEW YORK, August 17.—After losing the first game, 1 to 0, to the Senators to-day, the Yankees pounded Walter Johnson for four runs in the last two innings of the second, scoring a 4 to 3 victory.

Warhop pitched a remarkable game in the first, allowing but three hits and walking one man. Mitchell's homer in the fourth tallied the only score. Ayers was almost as good, as he held the locals to five safe hits. Scores:

PHILADELPHIA, August 17.—The Athletics won an easy victory from Cleveland to-day by the score of 5 to 0. The Athletics scored four runs off Cumbe in the first on Walsh's single, McGinnis's triple, Baker's single, McGinnis's triple and Oldring's out.

They only got one more hit off Cumbe until the seventh, when Dillinger replaced him, but the Athletics scored another run in the eighth on a sacrifice hit by McGinnis and McGinnis's single. Bush kept the Cleveland seven hits scattered, and aided by smart fielding, the Naps failed to score. The score:

FURNITURE BOYS WIN FROM MIDLOTHIANS
The James River Furniture and Mattress Company team defeated Midlothian in a ten-inning game by the score of 5 to 4. Green singled, stole second and scored on H. Jones's clean drive.

H. Jones, who has been playing short this season for Burk & Co., pitched a splendid game, allowing the farmer boys only three hits and striking out fourteen. Green, another Burk player, started at second base for the city, handling several hard chances without an error. F. Jones and Wingo were the stars with the stick, each getting three hits out of four times up.

Justice played a beautiful game in left field for Midlothian, robbing several of the opposing batters of drives that were labeled for three bases.

A SENSATIONAL COMEBACK

ED. WALSH, "SPITBALL KING."

No man on the Chicago White Sox more elated over "Big Ed" Walsh's come back than is that same Big Ed himself. The twirler is proclaiming his return to form as a triumph of mind over muscle, and he is by the stiffest kind of a bluff that he managed to win a game now and then. Finding that his strength did not return, the big fellow was considering quitting the game. He was urged not to, but to study the methods of the twirlers who he faced. He admits now that before his arm went bad, however, he had devoted himself to a thorough study of the twirling art, and now he has come back as one of the best pitchers in the game.

BOTH GRAPPLERS SAY THEY WILL WIN BOUT

Hussane and Lewis Are in Fine Trim to Stand Long and Hard Battle.

JOE HANNA TO ACT AS REFEREE
West Virginia Horsemen Will Be Third Man on the Mat—One Preliminary to Be Staged, Starting at 8:30 o'Clock.

With each of the principals declaring himself confident of victory, every eye is ready for the mat contest between Lewis and Hussane. Both contestants will go through light exercise to-day, to be ready when the big match starts to-night. A preliminary will start the ball rolling at 8:30.

Both Hussane and Lewis is as fit as a fiddle for the match that will be held in Broad Street Park. It is quite the usual thing for wrestlers and fighters on the eve of a battle to claim victory in advance, but there never was a time when both men could make their claims with so little danger of flat contradiction, practically all the dope places the men as even choice. Each man gives his reason for being anxious for victory, the same, a chance to meet Dr. Rolla, this bout likely to be decided on August 27.

Both men have trained hard and faithfully, and the loser will have no excuses to make after the match.

Toussouf Hussane says: "I will go after Lewis from the start, just as I have after the other men I beat, and, if necessary, I will put him out of business to win this match. If the two and strange holds were not eliminated, I would beat him in 10 minutes." (This was Hussane's manager, as the Turk speaks very bad English.)

Ed Lewis says: "I am in the best of condition, and will wear the Turk down. This is the chance I have been looking for, although I beat the Turk the last time we met; the verdict did not please all the people. My desire is to win to-night in straight falls."

The advance sale of seats indicate a large crowd. The referee will be Joe Hanna.

Takes $3,000 Stake for 2:20 Trotters in Grand Circuit Races at Pittsburgh.

NO POOL-SELLING ALLOWED
Betting Also Forbidden—"Pop" Geers Put Over Surprise in 2:07 Event—Del Ray Won First Heat, but Did Not Last.

PITTSBURGH, August 17.—Racing without pool selling, something not seen to date on the Grand Circuit this season, featured the opening of the first day meeting at Bruno's Island track this afternoon, the ban being placed on the auctions here. The feature race was the $3,000 stake for 2:20 trotters, which was won by straight heats by the three-year-old filly, Margaret Druien, driven by Walter Cox, this being the third consecutive stake victory for the filly.

Grand Opera, a Canadian stallion who raced through the Grand Circuit in 1912, without winning a heat, was a straight heat victor in the 2:15 pace.

Reusens, the chestnut gelding which with "Pop" Geers won the M. and M. stake in 1911, but has been of little account since, was the surprise in the 2:07 trot, and beat the heat easily.

The only event to be split up was the 2:04 pace, in which Del Ray, driven by Cox, won the first heat, but was beaten by his stablemate, Baron A., in the next three heats. Summaries:

PLAN BIG DAY FOR YOUNG ATHLETES

Playground Directors Have Arranged Full Program of Sports to Be Held at Byrd Park.

WILL BE TRIANGULAR MEET
Chimborazo, Clarke Spring and South Richmond Youngsters Will Strive for Championship Pennant. Events Open to All.

The children of the Richmond playgrounds are preparing for a big day at Byrd Park on Friday a week. An all-day picnic and play festival will be held under the direction of the city playground supervisors. Hundreds of children are expected to spend the day at the park and take part in the activities planned by the directors.

There is enough on the program to last nearly the entire day. An athletic meet for the boys in the afternoon promises to be the feature of the program. This will be a three-cornered affair, the boys from Chimborazo, Clarke Spring and South Richmond striving to win for their respective playgrounds. A pennant made of regular flag bunting will be presented to the playground winning the greatest number of points in the meet.

The pennant will bear the legend, "Play Day Champions, 1914." Next year it will float over one of the playgrounds mentioned to show all the children in attendance the prestige of their playground in athletics and games.

All boys entering the meet will have to enter from some playground in the city. Points scored by any boy will go to the credit of his playground. A list of prizes for the different events will be announced next week. All boys desiring to enter any of the events should send in their names to the director of the playground nearest them.

A program of events for girls will be announced within a few days. Baseball, volleyball, bicycle racing.
